Free Dental Care US

- Services Listed: Free dental clinics, sliding fee scale dental clinics, low-cost affordable dental clinics, non-profit dental clinics
- About us: We have put together one of the most comprehensive lists of free and sliding scale dental resources on the internet. Many of the resources for dental care are free, but many are based on income and/or discounted in other manners. Please review the listings and contact the dental clinics through the website provided (and/or phone numbers listed), to obtain full details. Please be aware that not all clinics are completely free. Some cities also have a low number of clinics so in many cases we have included nearby clinics in the search results. If you are aware of any clinics that offer free or low-cost services to patients needing dental care, please contact us. We are constantly updating our website with new information on the clinics. We are also adding clinics daily. If you find any of our information out of date or improper, please contact us using

Medicaid Providers

How to find dentists accepting KanCare \(Medicaid\)

- All children enrolled in KanCare have dental coverage. For help finding a dentist for your child, use the Find a Dentist for Your Kid search tool on the federal CMS website at this link: www.insurekidsnow.gov/coverage/find-a-dentist/index.html
- Adults with KanCare insurance can receive dental exams and cleanings at least once per year. In addition, United Healthcare will provide one x-ray per year and those with a FE waiver may be eligible to receive dentures at no cost. Tooth extractions may be covered if they are considered medically necessary.
- Call the phone number on your health insurance card to find out how to find a dentist near you who takes your insurance.
- Be sure to let your dentist know that you're enrolled in KanCare or give them the name of your health plan when you make an appointment for care.
- If you're having trouble getting an appointment to see a dental care provider, call the KMAP Customer Service Center at 1-800-766-9012 or your health plan's member services department for help.
